Cash Demand For Wheat Strong In

Chicago Yesterday. Ubleago, Nov. 28.—Wheat shinwed some rejectiance for its late weakness and the new leaf turned ower at the opening was not turned back again during a fairly nettive session. The cash demand improved somewhat and the forced selling of December which resently has had a depisosing effect, shortly after the opening, coased aimost entirely. Lavepool, too, set a good example of the strength into the world's viable, according to Hrailstreet's, increased less than last year and somewhat and productions—1,58,000 toolsels, May opened unchanged at 9549, and December advanced to 8, and May too 70s. Both motions cased off a triffe at the close on welling against cais. December distributed the close on welling against cais. December closeling 1,50°s, over yesterday at triffe at the close on welling against cais. December closeling 1,50°s, over yesterday at 1,50°s, and May 1,50°s, better at 20\(\frac{1}{2}\) 50°s.

Corn heid stoody for May, a shade case for December and haying May. May closed a shade better at 20\(\frac{1}{2}\) 50°s.

Oals were steady at a fraction over yesterdays. The tone seemed to indicate that there had been a bit too much selling ately. The cash demand was fair with a good inquiry from the seaboard. May closed by higher at 3. December closed a shade up at 275°s.
